The Public

Sat. Sept. 7, 5:00 pm RATING PG
USA 120 min

Director Emilio Estevez does an excellent job of handling current social issues of homelessness, loneliness and poverty with a light touch and lots of humour. The idea of a public library as a refuge and oasis is not new to many of us, but this story puts the spotlight on good will and kindness.

Red Joan Fri. Sept. 20 – Thurs. Sept. 26 7:30 p.m. 7 DAYS RATING PG

A joint presentation by the Shuswap Film Society and Salmar Theatre. UK 101 min

Based on the novel of the same name. Judi Dench portrays one of the most influential spies in living history, who is enjoying a peaceful retirement in a picturesque village in England - until she is arrested by M15.

The Shuswap Film Society will be your special hosts on Friday, September 20 and Saturday, September 21.

Pierre-Paul is a disgruntled and cynical courier who finds himself in the wrong place, but is it the right time? He stumbles onto a crime scene where no one sees him flee with the money. Having a PhD in philosophy has not been enough for him to find success in life; he seems doomed to make wrong choices and we all expect him to "fall". The fun comes in watching what happens next.

A joint presentation by the Shuswap Film Society and Salmar Theatre.

A Chinese family discovers their grandmother has only a short while to live and they decide not to tell her. Instead they schedule a wedding to gather the family together. The script is a lovely balance between drama and comedy, grief and guilt, and love and respect for tradition. Winner of Best Film at 5 festivals to date, including Audience Choice at Sundance. Starring Awkwafina (from Crazy Rich Asians).
