Will, a veteran suffering from PTSD, and his daughter have lived off the grid for years in the forests of Portland, Oregon. When they come to the attention of the authorities both are forcibly restored to society. After clashing with their new surroundings, they set off on a journey back to their wild homeland.

Three Identical Strangers

Wed. Oct. 3, 7:30 pm RATING PG
UK 96 min

In this prize-winning documentary, a chance encounter brings together three identical triplets, nearly two decades after being separated at birth and raised by different families. The fairy-tale reunion is soon undermined by the realities of fame, family and a dark suspicion that something sinister tore them apart in the first place.

The Wife

Sat. Oct 6, 5:00 pm RATING 14A
UK/Sweden/USA 100 min

Joe Castleman is being given the Nobel Prize for literature, which unavoidably puts his wife Joan into the spotlight. Joan is stoic and supportive as the woman behind the great author, but once the couple arrives in Stockholm, things begin to unravel. The story is a procession of scenes from a marriage, played with precision and verve by the excellent cast of Glenn Close, Jonathan Price, and Christian Slater.

FRANCE subtitles 138 min

A small village in rural France is where this story begins in 1915 and ends in 1920. While their men are away fighting in the war, the women assume prominent roles on the farm. When the men return from the front, they find adjustment a challenge as they carry the memories of horrors in the trenches. This is one of the most beautifully photographed and quietly told stories of women abiding the tyranny of war with an aplomb unseen in modern cinema.

Kayak to Klemtu

Sat. Oct. 20, 5:00 pm RATING 14A
CANADA 90 min

14 year-old Ella is fulfilling her dying uncle's wish: to kayak the length of the Inside Passage along the shores of the Great Bear Rainforest from Tla'amin to Klemtu. She hopes to testify to protect her ancestral land from an oil pipeline and gathers her eccentric family to take the adventure with her. The journey will prove to be a test of tolerance and adversity.

Puzzle

Sat. Oct. 27, 5:00 pm & 7:30 pm RATING PG
USA 103 min

This is a gentle story of an unassuming woman who comes to recognize her unspoken hopes and dreams through the unlikely avenue of competitive jigsaw puzzling. Kelly Macdonald gives a striking performance as Agnes, hinting at a deep longing for expression, hidden beneath a lifetime of restraint.
